Defendants.)

SECOND ENTRY ON JURISDICTION

On March 27, 2018, the Court ordered the Defendants to file a supplemental jurisdictional statement, identifying the citizenship of each of the parties and the specific identity of the LLC parties' members and those members' citizenship (Filing No. 9).

On March 29, 2018, the Defendants filed their Supplemental Jurisdictional Statement (Filing No. 13). However, the Statement did not identify the members of Plaintiff Technical Youth, LLC, and those members' citizenship. Additionally, the Defendants' Statement failed to allege the citizenship of Defendants Kyle Lepi and Robert Moyer as well as the citizenship of the members of Defendant Agility Partners, LLC—namely, Adam Kutasy and Robert Moyer. Rather, the Defendants' Statement notes the residency of individual parties. The Court reiterates that citizenship is the operative consideration for jurisdictional purposes. See Meyerson v. Harrah's East Chicago Casino, 299 F.3d 616, 617 (7th Cir. 2002) ("residence and citizenship are not synonyms and it is the latter that matters for purposes of the diversity jurisdiction").

Based upon the Defendants' Supplemental Jurisdictional Statement, the Court still is unable to determine whether diversity jurisdiction exists. Therefore, the Defendants are ORDERED to file a second supplemental jurisdictional statement that establishes the Court's jurisdiction over this case. The jurisdictional statement should specifically identify the members of Plaintiff Technical Youth, LLC and those members' citizenship as well as the citizenship of all the individual parties. This Supplemental Jurisdictional Statement is due April 16, 2018. Failure to cure the jurisdictional deficiencies may result in dismissal of this action for lack of jurisdiction.

SO ORDERED.
